

Air1 has been more than helpful. Although I do not live in the area of Phoenix anymore, Air1 helped me through many difficult times while I was living there. It still does as I now listen to the station online. Air1 provides a positive message to be a good citizen without being preachy, and after all, the world needs more good citizens.